BIO

Gianluca Cardinale is Bon-Psy, A London/UK based producer creating future electronic beats that bridge the gap between melodic and experimental music.

Infused with wonky rhythms and grooves, Bon-Psy's music is influenced by a variety of genres and artists including jazz, ambient, and glitch to name a few.

Gianluca became involved with music in his youth, learning to play bass and guitar before transitioning to music production. Since then, he has steadily been shaping his unique sound in the electronic music scene.

Under the Bon-Psy moniker, he has received heavy support from the likes of Jaguar (BBC 1), Sian Eleri (BBC 1), Huey Morgan (BBC 6), Tom Robinson (BBC 6), Bandcamp Weekly, Worldwide FM, Suicide Sheep, Earmlilk, Wonderland, KALTBLUT and a clutch of Spotify editorial playlists (Genre Glitch, Orbit, Fresh Finds Jazz, Fresh Finds Experimental), collectively adding some real weight to his name.

Now working with Asta Hiroki's Folded Music imprint he has several projects lined up for release in the near future.

"Bon-Psy has a knack for creating journey-like listening experiences" - Stereofox
